

OH I DO LIKE TO BE BESIDE THE SEASIDE (Florrie Ford)

(Solo or ladies only to sing verses)

(C) Everyone delights to spend their

(Am7) summer holiday,

(G7) Down beside the side of the silvery (C) sea,

(C) I'm no exception to the rule,

in (Am7) fact if I'd my way

(G7) I'd reside by the side of the silvery (C) sea.

But (G) when you're just a (G7) common or garden

(C) Smith or Jones or Brown,

(G7) With a business up in town you've

(C) got to settle down

You (G) save up all the (G7) money you can till

(C) summer comes a-(Am7)-round

(Slowly) Then (G) away you go...

to (G7) a spot you know...

Where the (D7) cockle shells are (G7) found (G7 + 5)

Chorus – All together let it rip!

Oh I (C) do like to be beside the (G) seaside,

Oh I (Am7) do like to be beside the (F) sea (A7)

I (G) do like to (G7) stroll upon the

(A7sus4) prom (A7) prom (A7+5) prom

While the (D7) brass bands play, tiddly (G7) om pom pom

OH I DO LIKE TO BE BESIDE THE SEASIDE (Florrie Ford)

So (C) just let me be beside the (G) seaside
(Am7) I'll be beside myself with (F) glee (A7) (Dm)
And there are (B7) lots of girls beside
I should (Em) like to be be-(A7)-side
Beside the (D7) seaside, (G7) beside the (C) sea
(G7) (C)

(C) Timothy went to Blackpool for the day last (Am7) Easter time,
(G7) To see what he could see beside the (C) sea,
(C) As soon as he reached the station there,
the (Am7) first thing he espied
(G7) Was a wine lodge door stood open inviting-(C)-ly
To (G) quench his thirst he (G7) toddled inside and (C) called out for the wine,
(G7) And then had eight or nine,
Till (C) his nose began to shine.
Said (G) he what (G7) people see (C) beside the sea,
I really fail to (Am7) see (Slowly) So (G) he caught the train, Back (G7) home again. And to (D7) his wife said (G7) he (G7+5)

Chorus – All together, let it rip!
